Julia V. Billman

MAY 5, 1971 - FEB 20, 2017

Julia Viola Billman, 45, of Batesville, IN passed away peacefully on February 20, 2017, 2:15 a.m. at The Waters. She will be greatly missed by her mother Carolyn (Forthofer) Billman, father Melvin Billman, both of Batesville; sisters Annette (George) Reeves of Ragley, LA and Amy (Chris) Caliendo, Oldenburg; and brother-in-law Alan Crum, one niece and two nephews of Sunman. She is predeceased by sister Melissa Crum.

Julia was proud of her position as Quality Technician at Batesville Tool and Die where she worked for many years, and traveled to both Canada and Mexico to ensure customer quality parts. She was an avid fan of Peyton Manning (although not necessarily a Colts or Bronco fan), crime TV mystery shows Law & Order and NCIS, spending time with family and her beloved feline "Snow".

Visitation will be held at the funeral home on Wednesday from 5:00-7:00 p.m. Followed by mass on Thursday at 10:00 a.m., St. Louis Church. Donations may be made to the Food Pantry, Batesville, IN or by doing a random act of kindness as Miss Julia was so thankful and appreciative of those who assisted her in small and big ways, providing the opportunity for her to live independently for so many years. May our darling Girl R.I.P.

Carolyn, Melvin, Amy n family, so sorry to hear this. I had so many fun n crazy times with Julie -I never will forget cruising in the Volkswagens, one would break down so we take it home and trade for another one! Thought about Julie all through the years n was unable to find her on Facebook. I haven't and never will forget her. God Bless you n R.I.P. Julie! ? 😊

I am so very sorry to hear that Jules has passed away! My mind and heart have been filled with memories since I heard. There are not many memories from high school that don't have her in them. We had soooo much fun cruising in the brown Rabbit, goofing off at school, going to concerts and so many many more crazy times! I will never forget her great laugh!! Your entire family are in my thoughts and prayers, and I am very sorry for your loss!

I did not know Julia, however my Mom was Viola (Billman) Prickel. Today, February 20 is her heavenly birthday. I truly believe these things happen for a reason. Hoping this brings you a little peace as my Mom was a caring, beautiful person. My condolences to Julia's family.
