Craig M. Duvelius

SEP 16, 1984 - SEP 16, 2007

Craig M. Duvelius, age 23 of Murfreesboro, Tennessee and formerly of Batesville, died Sunday, September 16, 2007 at his home. Born January 31, 1984 in Batesville, he is the son of Lori (Nee: Gover) and Jeff Duvelius. Craig was attending Middle Tennessee State University and worked for Domino's Pizza while attending school. He enjoyed flying and had received his pilot's license in February of this year. In addition to his parents, Jeff is also survived by his sister Erin Duvelius, of Murfreesboro; maternal grandparents Aline and Wayne Gover of Cincinnati; paternal grandparents Daniel and Jeanne Duvelius of Indianapolis; two aunts; two uncles and several great aunts and uncles. Visitation is Friday, September 21st, from 4-8 p.m., at the funeral home, with a rosary service at 7 p.m. Funeral services are 10:00 a.m. Saturday, September 22nd, at Holy Family Church in Oldenburg, with Rev. Dennis Duvelius officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. Louis Church.

Thank you everyone for all of your love and support at this time. My brother was an amazing person. He always knew how to make anyone laugh or smile. I always counted on him for that. He had a huge heart and would do anything for anyone. I know he is and will forever be greatly missed. Not a day goes by that I won't think of him.

I'm sorry to hear about Craig's passing. He was in my history class at MT SU, and I was just getting to know him. He surprised me last week, when he was the driver who delivered a pizza to my house. I know it's a terrible loss to you.
