Robert R. Logan

APR 25, 1918 - APR 25, 2009

Robert R. Logan, age 91 of Batesville, died Saturday, April 25, 2009, at St. Andrew's Health Campus. Born March 15, 1918 in Rockfield, Indiana, he is the son of Emma (Nee: Kennedy) and Russell Logan. He married Frances Callendar June 16, 1942 in Montgomery, Alabama and she preceded him in death July 28, 2005. Bob served in Army during World War II with the 445th Bomber Squadron, 321st Bomb Group. Bob was proud of his time in the service, seeing extensive action in the European, African and Middle Eastern Europe (EAME) Theater, where he earned 8 bronze stars as well as a Distinguished Unit Citation (the degree of heroism required is the same as that which would warrant award of the Distinguished Service Cross to an individual). He was the Superintendent of Maintenance at Hill-Rom before retiring in 1985 after nearly 30 years. Organizations he belonged to include the Prell-Bland American Legion Post #271, a life member of the 57th Bomb Wing Association and a local group called the Gloria Club. Bob enjoyed many interests and hobbies. Not a man of many words, he spent his quiet time working crossword puzzles and was an avid reader, especially books on history and biographies of prominent people. He was a devoted fan of Big Band music as well as the Cincinnati Reds and Indiana University Basketball during the Bobby Knight years. He liked to reminisce about his memories of Florida from his earlier years when he worked in the sugar plantations. Until recently, each year he would put in a garden, although his children "aren't sure if it was a labor of love or because mom wanted him too." His family also remembers Bob's dry sense of humor and the prankster in him. A favorite memory was time he disassembled a buggy and reassembled it on the roof of a grocery store. His son and daughters also fondly recall that dad savored a good shot of whiskey and one of his favorite sayings, "house guests are like fish, after two days both get stinky and need to go." Bob absolutely loved dogs. A passion that was exceeded only by time spent with his family. He is survived by his daughters Rebecca Best of La Grange,

I have lived and worked all over the country, but Bob was my FIRST boss at Hillenbrands in department H12 in 1964. I will never forget him. He was good to me, and I think he was well respected by all his men all those years. I certainly will miss him, but will NEVER miss the mrmories of him.
