Kathy (Fuentes) Lindley Of Crawfordsville, Indiana posted:

I graduated from Sunman High School in 1968, and Sharon rode and sat with me on the same bus while she attended there. She was so special to me and just a few weeks ago I tried to locate her. At that time I was telling several people about her, and how there is someone in your life that will always be in your heart and Sharon was and always will be in mine. I kept an eye out for her as if she was my little sister. I remember one day they came to class to get me as she was very upset would not talk to anyone and wanted me. She was crying when I got to her and she finally told me she was sick. The office called you to come and get her but she didn't want me to leave and I stayed with her, and held her hand until you arrived. That is one of the warmest memories I have of being in school. That and the look on her face as she was walking down the aisle on the bus coming to sit with me. Sharon was such a very special person and I Thank God he let her be part of my life. I will see her again and hold her hand like I got to do before. God has a Special Angel.
