JAN 12, 1932 - JAN 12, 2012

Rosemary C. Voegele, age 80 of Batesville, died Thursday, January 12, 2012 at St. Andrew's Health Campus. Born January 2, 1932 in Batesville, she is the daughter of Mary (Nee: Wise) and William Firsich. She married John Voegele July 4, 1952 at St. Louis Church and he preceded her in death on December 15, 1995. Rosemary worked at Federal-Mogul as an assembler and inspector for 25 years before retiring in 1994. She also liked to watch college basketball, the NBA, old movies (Dean Martin and Fred Astaire were among her favorites), the Game Show Network, Matlock and Dancing with the Stars. Summer was her favorite time of the year and her children remember how she loved to go for rides out in the country. They also remember her fried chicken and that famous potato salad family and friends alike always requested her to make. She is survived by her daughters Christy Thompson of Greensburg; Tina Deskins of Cromwell, Kentucky, Rose Ellinghausen of Manchester, Indiana, Debbie Ertel of Sunman; sons John of Aurora, Indiana, Keith of Oldenburg, George of Batesville, Randy of Lake Elsinore, California, Dean, Phillip, Warren and Steve, all of Batesville; sister Betty Burkhel of Lemon Grove, California; brothers John of Anaheim, California, James of Wasco, California; 18 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. In addition to her husband and parents, she is also preceded in death by her daughter Cathy Ostendorf and step brother Gerald Linkin. Visitation will be Monday, January 16th, from 4-7 p.m. at the funeral home. Funeral services are 11 a.m. Tuesday, January 17th, at St. Louis Church with Rev. Randy Summers officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. The family requests memorials to the American Heart Association.

I know you are all aware of how good your mother was. She was one of the friendliest people I knew. You are all in my thoughts and prayers in your time of loss, but know that she is in a much better place right now.
