I knew Donna from years ago when we both graduated from high school and started working at Romweber's. We became good friends. Although we lost touch over the years, I always remember her as a sweet and kind person. She will be missed. Prayers to the family.

Joy, and I were born in 1927 in Batesville, were cousins who spent many summers at Main Street. My mother was the older sister, Beryll Inez Stille who married Edwin Ellinghausen born in Manchester in 1027. She was more my sister and she was a friend for life and will always be. In Donna Jean I have another cousin to remember; My regets to George and Dennis from Don & Bettye Ellinghausen
