Brandi, I wish you and your family God's great comfort during your time of loss. I did not know your father, but I have great respect for our military. Your father's service in the Marine Corps and evident devotion to his children certainly show him to be a fine man.

Steve was a genuine character with enough personality for two people. I never saw him seek the spotlight, but I believe he was a heroic man. Steve was someone you could depend on - he would have your back. He loved his family fiercely, he enjoyed Christmas, and he liked to laugh. I will remember Steve as a kind and loving man.

Love you very much dad and I will miss you very much too, but I know you are better off than we are. You are the lucky one getting to reunite with Mike and Michelle...wow how cool. There are just as many up there that love you as down here. You have touched the heart and lives of many! We love you dad and will miss you always!!!! Love your Bear
