Janis “John” Indriksons, age 76 of Franklin, Indiana and formerly of Indianapolis, died Thursday, December 21, 2017 at Otterbein Franklin Senior Life Community in Franklin. Born August 11, 1941 in Riga, Latvia, he is the son of Elza (Nee: Kaukis) and Aleksandrs Indriksons. He married Diane Weigel September 22, 1973 at St. Louis Church in Batesville. He served in the Air Force from 1961 to 1962 and after the service became a licensed electrician, working for the Indiana Brotherhood of Electric Workers until retiring.

Born in Latvia, his family escaped to Germany in 1945. In 1950 they immigrated to the United States and he grew up in Lincoln, Nebraska. A sports fan, he enjoyed following the Huskers and Colts and although he liked watching golf, he didn’t golf himself. John would read the newspaper from front page to back page, liked mowing and fiddling in the yard and according to Diane, loved food. When Diane got a break from the cooking they were frequent visitors to Bob Evans and Denny’s. A dog lover, John was very fond of his two Shelties, Brewster and Brandy.

He is survived by his wife Diane; brothers Andris (Jean) Indriksons of Zionsville, Indiana, Karlis (Margaret) Indriksons of Lincoln, Nebraska; niece Kristina Indriksons of New York and nephew David (Kristina) Indriksons of Silver Springs, Maryland. He is preceded in death by his parents.
