Dear Marilyn ... Al and I were saddened to hear of your sister Dee's passing, when it was announced in church Saturday evening. An "empty pew" that both of you occupied was noticed upon entering for mass. Our prayers continue for you and your family as you lay your sister to rest. Dee's struggle has come to a close. Know that she smiles once again, as she is Truly Home. Our Sincerest Sympathy ... Al and Kelly Meyer

Dear Marilyn,We are so sorry for your loss! Dee babysat for our two sons, Jon and Nick, about thirty years ago! The boys always loved going to your home in Oldenburg! Throughout the years, when I would see Dee and you in Batesville, you always would ask how Jon and Nick were doing! Dee was a very special person to her family, the children she babysat for, and the community! She will definitely be missed! Love and Peace, Jane O'Grady
