David H. "Scrub" Wallpe passed away unexpectedly at home at age of 64. Survived by his wife Shelly, he is the son of the late Walter and Loretta Wallpe of Morris, Indiana. He is the brother of Elaine (Charles) Bentfield, Willard (Donna) Wallpe, Rita (John) Baumer, Lucy (Robert) Sheldon, Joe (Therese) Wallpe, Nancy (Gary) Sander, as well as many loved nieces, nephews and treasured friends. In addition to his parents he is also preceded in death by sisters Bernice (Don) Brebberman and Marceda (Bill) Metz.

Scrub had a 42-year career in IT Logistics and Project Management with Digital Equipment, Hewlett-Packard, and PNC Bank. He was an avid sports fan and outdoorsman. Shelley – Words cannot begin to express how sorry Becky and I are for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. We hope you are comforted by the many beautiful memories of love and happiness you have shared over the years. Dave was such a kind man. After all of these years, I still feel profoundly blessed to have been Dave’s friend. From the very first day we met, it was clear he was a man of integrity and a big heart. He helped me, from day one, when he didn’t need to. He became my friend and mentor when no one asked him to. He was just that kind of person. He continued to be my friend through the years – through the great times and the terrible lows. He was always a thoughtful and devoted friend. I find it hard to accept that he’s no longer with us but am grateful for how he impacted my life. I want to thank him and want to thank you, Shelley. You have been by his side for many years and you made him into the wonderful person that we all knew and love. I’d like to share one of my last funny memories of Dave. A week after my son’s wedding, Dave complimented me on giving such a nice speech. I joked he only wanted to suck up to me so I wouldn’t get him into trouble when we visited Vietnam in January. He laughed a lot and said the Vietnamese spoke English so he’d be just fine. Rest in Peace, Dave.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs.Shelly and Wallpe Family. We pray that your faith and all your loving memories will sustain you through this sad time. Even though Mr.Wallpe and I live across the country, we shared a similar background. We both worked for DEC and PNC Bank. I would say this is the reason why we gotten along over the years. But, the truth is David was caring, thoughtful and always there to help. Thank you Mrs. Shelly and Wallpe Family for sharing David with us. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.PNC CDS H. Scrub was a special man and we were blessed to have him in our neighborhood. He was such an upstanding guy and dedicated to all that he did. Many a time we would see him watering the plants in our circle island and walking his sweet dog Butter. Maybe it was Butter walking Scrub, come to think of it. He loved his Shelly and family. He fondly talked of his large family he was raised with. I am sure he will be missed by all who knew him. Gone too soon. Glad that we crossed paths in this big world. When I think of him , I will smile. That is what he would want of us. We are here for you Shelly,night or day. Shelly, you are in our hears and prayers. Love,Paul and Bonnie.
