Irene G. Dickman

JUL 29, 1933 - JUL 17, 2021

Irene Gertrude (Hornbach) Dickman, 87 of Batesville, passed away in her home at 6:13 pm on Saturday July 17, 2021. She was born in her home on Esther Ridge in Yorkville, Indiana on July 29, 1933. She was the daughter of Anthony and Mary (Hegarty) Hornbach. After graduating from Guilford High School, she married her love, Richard Dickman on June 19, 1954.

After graduation from high school, Irene worked in bookkeeping and sales at Home Furniture Store in Lawrenceburg, Indiana. She spent the remainder of her life nurturing her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Irene took pride in her flower and vegetable garden and loved digging in the dirt. She is famous for planting hen and chicks in old boots and shoes.

She loved to celebrate her Irish heritage and shared family stories of how her mother made her way to America through Ellis Island in 1921. She loved celebrating reunions with her extended family was the official minute taker documenting the attendees and the previous year's award winners.

Irene and Richard enjoyed buying treasures at auctions and reselling the wares at the flea market in Miamitown and at her personal yard sales. The biannual family garage sales were full of "New, Used, Old and Unusual items".

The annual family campouts became a cherished tradition spanning over 40 years. Through the years when she was asked, "What do you want for your birthday?" She would reply, "a day of peace." She treasured having her home and kitchen always open for any family member or friend to stop in for lunch or a visit.

She was a woman who leaned on the power of prayer and her faith was strong. Irene and Richard were committed to providing their children a Catholic Education at St. Louis School and sending

Dearest Ann and family, My deepest sympathy in the passing of your sweet momma. Although I did not know her, you always spoke of her with such love and admiration in your voice and words. I know that you will miss her so much, but I'm praying for you to find comfort and peace. May your treasured memories bring you joy. Love, Connie Ward
