I was so happy to be his Spiritual brother in Christ Jesus. Every Sunday we would pray for his right arm. It would hurt him so bad and I would stop the service and ask everyone to pray God would stop the pain. I am glade he is now in no pain and in Heaven with his Jesus.

I detasseled corn at Stewart Seeds for many years with Andy. One of the highlights was the year he got his drivers license and drove us to work. He loved to play his Huey Lewis and the News cassette tape over and over. He was a gentle soul who liked to hang out with his Oldenburg buddies. Rest in peace Andy!- Mark Giesting
