Steve Smith lit a candle in honor of Sebastian.

I am saddened to hear of the passing of my Nephew Sebastian. I would like to wish my condolences to David, Roselyn, Family and friends. I only got a chance to see Sebastian a few times when I would come home to Indiana from Upstate New York to visit family. I remember I saw him David, my sister Dawn and Roselyn after they moved into their new house in Greensburg around Jan of 2011. I remember him drawing me a picture of an acorn and giving it to me, we cut it out and I put it in my bill fold and have had it in there ever since and it looks like it was just made. He and his sister loved playing with the dogs when I was there. I'm sure he touched many lives in the short time we had with him. He may be gone, but he will never be forgotten. He is in all of our hearts, mindes and memories that will live on. He is with the Lord now and is doing his good work. Rest in peace Sebastian, Love Uncle Steve.
