Dear Tom, Deb and the Harmeyer family, Our deep condolences on your mother's death. Although we never had the pleasure to meet, Tom's stories of his youth accompanied by his hearty laugh, painted a memorable image of a formidable, loving woman. Through my dear friend Deb I know that Mary's love spread widely to encompass those who loved hers and that love was sincerely reciprocated. May your memories continue to keep her with you. Joyce , Jane and I went through high school together, riding the same school bus every day, sharing many laughs and good times over those years. Even though I moved away after I was married, Joyce and I still kept in contact with each other. Great fun memories in those days. Rest in peace Joyce. May you find Jerry in heaven and look down on all that love you and remember the "Good old days." Love and prayers
