Ruth M. Siefert

JAN 18, 1938 - SEP 23, 2023

Ruth M. Siefert, age 85 of Batesville, Indiana, passed away Saturday, September 23, 2023, at her home surrounded by her family. Born January 18, 1938, she is the daughter of Anna (Nee: Rosfeld) and Leo Theobald. She married Quirin (Mike) Siefert on May 30, 1961, at St. Mary's of the Rock Catholic Church and he preceded her in death February 25, 1979. She was a member of St. Louis Catholic Church and its Ladies Society.

Ruth was raised in St. Mary's of the Rock and lived in Batesville. Her focus in life was raising her three children in the Catholic faith on the family farm and teaching them a good work ethic.

Ruth retired from Hill-Rom after 30 plus years. To keep active, she also worked at Batesville Schools, and Hillcrest Country Club. She volunteered at St. Louis School and St. Louis Church. Recently, Ruth spent time volunteering at the Batesville food pantry.

Ruth kept her home and farm immaculate and well groomed. Ruth enjoyed gardening and flowers. Rarely did anyone visit without viewing her multiple gardens and leaving without vegetables, fruit or starts of flowers. She was proud of her garden and flowers being featured in a local garden/flower tour one year.

Ruth loved to dance; this was a lifelong passion for her. Square dancing and the chicken dance were among her favorite dances. Ruth always enjoyed Christmas music but did not enjoy decorating for the holiday.

Ruth enjoyed being with people, especially her 7 grandkids including their yearly park day.

Ruth always had a smile & a kind greeting to everyone she met.

Myrtle lit a candle in honor of Ruth.

I have many memories of Ruth and her constant smile and laughter. Her energy lit up the robotics department at Hill-Rom for years. I'm saddened to hear of her passing. Myrtle Patrick Thomas

Deepest sympathy to the family. Ruth was such a special person. So kind and caring. She came to visit with Mom almost every year after Henry passed away and that meant so much to her. We all know that she is in Heaven now and enjoying all of God's treasures. Sincerely, Henry & Mary Lou Aulbach Youngman

My sweet Ruthiepoo. I loved you beyond words. We helped each other have countless laughs over the past 13 months. So many things will make me think of you for the rest of my days....Kroger bags, Pringles, laundry on the line, Burger King and the song "Up on the House Top" just to name a few. You were a gentle soul who taught me to be patient and to just sit and soak up the sunshine even on the coldest of days. I am so happy that you are in a place where you can be pain free, plant flowers, hang laundry and bask in the sun every day.
