Edith M. "Eydie" Lamping

NOV 8, 1941 - OCT 26, 2024

Edith M. Lamping, age 82 of Hamburg, Indiana, passed away on Saturday, October 26, 2024. Born November 8, 1941, in Morris, Indiana, she is the daughter of Herman and Irene (Nee: Bedel) Merkel. She married Joseph Lamping on July 6, 1960, at St. Anne's Catholic Church in Hamburg, and he preceded her in death on January 25, 2003.

Edith (Eydie) first worked for Hillenbrand Industries before becoming a homemaker to raise her family while also babysitting for many kids in Hamburg. She later enjoyed working at several retail stores in Batesville and then returning to Hillenbrand for a few years before retiring. She was a member of St. Anne's Catholic Church, its choir and its Ladies Society while also serving as an officer on the church's building committee.

At age seven, Eydie moved from Morris to Hamburg, the town she called home for seventy –five years. In her early adult years Eydie liked attending dances with Joe and being actively involved in her church and community. She enjoyed gardening as she was often seen with her family in their big vegetable garden. She also loved tending to her flowers, and she could always find a new spot to plant a few more. In addition, Eydie loved to cook and bake. She assumed everyone was hungry when they visited and was determined to send them away full. She was best known for her delicious chocolate chip cookies, which she took immense pleasure in sharing with others. Family gatherings were filled with love, home-cooked meals, and spirited card games.

Eydie was hardworking and kind-hearted with a wonderful smile. She was devout in her Catholic faith which provided her strength through life's challenges. Above all, her family was most important, and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were the light of her life.

She is survived by her daughters Diane (Steve) Fullenkamp and Donna Hoeing both of Batesville; Cindy Lamping of Chicago; son Mike Lamping of Hamburg; grandchildren Angela (Sam) Bailie and Ann Carriger both of Batesville; Mike Hoeing of Chicago; Bryan Hoeing of Indianapolis; great-granddaughters Lucy, Mia and Sophie Bailie and great-grandsons John and Drew Carriger;

To me, Edyie was a very special lady, cousin and dear friend. No matter what happened. she always had a smile on her beautiful face. God was always in control in her life. Be proud of your Mom, and thank God for the time you had her in your life. She had a deep and abiding faith in Jesus her Savior. I am sure there were times when she saw only one set of foot prints, and cried out to Jesus, and her cry was answered with "There is only one set of footprints, because that was when I was carrying you!" Know that Jesus is now carrying you family as you tearfully say your goodbyes for now. We will all miss her. Love and Prayers, Katie Holtel
